INDUSTRIES DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 6th September, 1973

No. 10-17/71-SI-Vol. II.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 15, read with clause (b) of section 2, of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (20 of 1946), the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following rules for the purpose of the said Act, the same having been previously published vide this Government notification of even number, dated the 3rd August, 1972, in Himachal Pradesh Government Rajpatra, dated the 28th October, 1972.

RULES

1. (1) These rules may be called the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Himachal Pradesh Rules, 1972.

(2) They shall apply to all industrial establishments in Himachal Pradesh in respect of which the Himachal Pradesh Government is the appropriate Government.

2. In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) 'Act' means the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (XX of 1946).

(b) 'Form' means a form set out in Schedule II appended to these rules.

3. The model standing orders for the purposes of the Act shall be those set out in Schedule I appended to these rules.

4. An application for certification of standing orders shall be made in Form I.

5. The prescribed particulars of workmen for the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Act shall be—

- (1) total number employed,
- (2) number of permanent workmen,
- (3) number of temporary workmen,
- (4) number of casual workmen,
- (5) number of badlis or substitutes,
- (6) number of probationers,
- (7) number of apprentices,
- (8) name of the trade union or trade unions, if any, to which the workmen belong,
- (9) remarks.

6. As soon as may be after he receives an application under rule 4 in respect of an industrial establishment, the certifying officer shall—

- (a) where there is a trade union of the workmen, forward a copy of the draft standing orders to the trade union together with a notice in Form II;
- (b) where there is no such trade union, call a meeting of the workmen to elect three representatives, to whom he shall, upon their election, forward a copy of the draft standing orders together with a notice in Form II.

7. Standing orders certified in pursuance of sub-section (3) of section 5 or sub-section (2) of section 6 of the Act shall be authenticated by the signature and seal of office of the certifying officer or the appellate authority, as the case may be, and shall be forwarded by such officer or authority within a week of authentication by registered letter post to the employer and to the trade union, or, as the case may be, the representatives of the workmen elected in pursuance of rule 6.

8. (1) Any person desiring to prefer an appeal in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act shall draw up a memorandum of appeal setting out the grounds of appeal and forward it in quadruplicate to the appellate authority accompanied by a certified copy of the standing orders, amendments or modifications, as the case may be.

(2) The appellate authority shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, confirm the standing orders, amendments or modifications as certified by the certifying officer unless it considers that there are reasons for giving the other parties to the proceedings a hearing before a final decision is made in the appeal.

(3) Where the appellate authority does not confirm the standing orders, amendments or modifications, it shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal and direct notice thereof to be given—

(a) where the appeal is filed by the employer or a workman, to trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishments, and where there are no such trade unions to the representatives of workmen elected under clause (b) of rule 6, or as the case may be, to the employer;

(b) where the appeal is filed by a trade union, to the employer and all other trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishment;

(c) where the appeal is filed by the representatives of the workmen, to the employer and any other workmen, whom the appellate authority joins as a party to the appeal.

(4) The appellant shall furnish each of the respondents with a copy of the memorandum of appeal.

(5) The appellate authority may at any stage call for any evidence it considers necessary for the disposal of the appeal.

(6) On the date fixed under sub-rules (3) for the hearing of the appeal, the appellate authority shall take such evidence as it may have called for or consider to be relevant.

9. The register required to be maintained by section 8 of the Act shall be in Form-III and shall be properly bound, and the certifying officer shall furnish a copy of standing orders approved for an industrial establishment to any person applying therefor on payment calculated at the following rates per copy:—

(i) for the first two hundred words or less seventy-five paise;

(ii) for every additional one hundred words or fraction thereof thirty-seven paise:

Provided that, where the said standing orders exceed five pages, the approximate number of words per page shall be taken as the basis for calculating the total number of words to the nearest hundred, for the purpose of assessing the copying fee.

10. The Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Central Rules, 1946, as in force in the areas, which comprised Himachal Pradesh immediately before the 1st November, 1966 and Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Punjab Rules, 1949 as in force in the territories added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966 (Central Act 31 of 1966) are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not effect—

- (a) the previous operation of the said rules or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability, acquired, accrued or incurred under the said rules;

- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment in respect of any offence committed against the said rules;
- (d) any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and
- (e) any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if these rules had not been framed.

SCHEDULE I

(See rule 3)

MODEL STANDING ORDERS

1. These orders shall come into force on.....

2. Classification of workmen.—(a) Workmen shall be classified as—

- (1) permanent,
- (2) probationers,
- (3) badlis,
- (4) temporary,
- (5) casual,
- (6) apprentices,

(b) A "permanent" workman is a workman who has been engaged on a permanent basis and includes any person who has satisfactorily completed a probationary period of three months in the same or another occupation in the industrial establishment including breaks due to sickness, accident, leave, lock-out, strike (not being an illegal strike) or involuntary closure of the establishment.

(c) A "probationer" is a workman who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed three months' service therein. If a permanent employee is employed as a probationer in a new post he may, at any time during the probationary period of three months, be reverted to his previous permanent post.

(d) A "badli" is a workman who is appointed in the post of a permanent workman or probationer who is temporarily absent.

(e) A "temporary" workman is a workman who has been engaged for work which is of an essentially temporary nature likely to be finished within a limited period.

(f) A "casual" workman is a workman whose employment is of a casual nature.

(g) An "apprentice" is a learner who is paid an allowance during the period of his training.

3. Tickets.—(1) Every workman shall be given a permanent ticket unless he is a probationer, badli, temporary, casual worker or apprentice.

(2) Every permanent workman shall be provided with a departmental ticket showing his number, and shall, on being required to do so, show it to any person authorised by the manager to inspect it.

(3) Every badli shall be provided with the badli card, on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment, and which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

(4) Every temporary workman shall be provided with a "temporary" ticket which he shall surrender on his discharge.

(5) Every casual worker shall be provided with a "casual" card, on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment.

(6) Every apprentice shall be provided with an "apprentice" card which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

4. Publication of working time.—The periods and hours of work for all classes of workers in each shift shall be exhibited in English and in Hindi on notice boards maintained at or near the main entrance of the establishment and at time-keeper's office, if any.

5. Publication of holidays and pay days.—Notices specifying (a) the days observed by the establishment as holidays, and (b) pay days shall be posted on the said notice boards.

6. Publication of wage rates.—Notices specifying the rates or wages payable to all classes of workman and for all classes of work shall be displayed on the said notice boards.

7. Shift Working.—More than one shift may be worked in a department or departments or any section of a department of the establishment at the discretion of the employer. If more than one shift is worked, the workmen shall be liable to be transferred from one shift to another. No shift working shall be discontinued without two months' notice being given in writing to the workmen prior to such discontinuance:

Provided that no such notice shall be necessary if the closing of the shift is under an agreement with the workmen affected. If as a result of the discontinuance of the shift working, any workmen are to be retrenched, such retrenchment shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) and the rules made thereunder. If shift working is re-started, the workmen shall be given notice and re-employed in accordance with the provisions of the said Act and the said rules.

8. Notice of changes in shift working.—Any notice of discontinuance or of restarting of a shift working required by Standing Order 7 shall be in the form appended to these orders and shall be served in the following manner, namely:—

The notice shall be displayed conspicuously by the employer on a notice-board at the main entrance to the establishment and in the manager's office:

Provided that where any registered trade union of workmen exists, a copy of the notice shall also be served by registered post on the Secretary of such union.

9. Attendance and late coming.—All workmen shall be at work at the establishment at the time fixed and notified under Paragraph 4. Workmen attending late will be liable to the deductions provided for in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act No. 4 of 1936).

10. Leave.—(1) Holidays with pay will be allowed as provided for in Chapter IV-A of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948) and other holidays in accordance with law, contract, custom and usage.

(2) A workman who desires to obtain leave of absence shall apply to the manager, who shall issue orders on the application within a week of its submission or two days prior to the commencement of the leave applied for, whichever is earlier, provided that if the leave applied for is to commence on the date of the application or within three days thereof, the order shall be given on the same day. If the leave asked for is granted, a leave pass shall be issued to the worker. If the leave is refused or postponed, the fact of such refusal or postponement and the reasons therefor shall be recorded in writing in a register to be maintained for the purpose, and if the worker so desires, a copy of the entry in the register shall be supplied to him. If the workman after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply to the manager who shall send a written reply either granting or refusing and if such reply is likely to reach his address is available of the leave originally granted to him.

(3) If the workman remains absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, he shall lose his lien on his appointment unless he (a) returns within 8 days of the expiry of the leave and (b) explain to the satisfaction of the manager his inability to return before the expiry of his leave. In case the workman loses his lien on his appointment, he shall be entitled to be kept on the badli list.

11. Casual and sick leave.—(1) Every workman shall be allowed casual and sick leave in accordance with the Himachal Pradesh Industrial Establishment (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act (Act No. 7 of 1970) and rules framed thereunder.

12. National/Festival Holidays.—Every workman shall be allowed National and Festival holidays in accordance with the Himachal Pradesh Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act (Act No. 7 of 1970) and rules framed thereunder.

13. Payment of Wages.—(1) Any wages, due to the workmen but not paid on the usual pay day on account of their being unclaimed, shall be paid by the employer on an unclaimed wage pay day in each week, which shall be notified on the notice board as aforesaid.

(2) All workmen will be paid wages on a working day before the expiry of the seventh or the tenth day after the last day of the wage period in respect of which the wages are payable, according as the total number of workmen employed in the establishment does not or does exceed one thousand.

14. Stoppage of work.—(1) The employer may, at any time in the event of fire, catastrophe, breakdown of machinery or stoppage of power supply, epidemics, civil commotion or other cause beyond his control, stop any section or sections of the establishment, wholly or partially for any period or periods without notice.

(2) In the event of such stoppage during working hours, the workmen affected shall be notified by notices put upon the notice-board in the department concerned, or at the office of the manager, as soon as practicable, when work will be resumed and whether they are to remain or leave their place of work. The workmen shall not ordinarily be required to remain for more than two hours after the commencement of the stoppage. If the period of detention does not exceed one hour the workmen so detained shall not be paid for the period of detention. If the period of detention exceeds one hour, the workmen so detained shall be entitled to receive wages for the whole of the time during which they are detained as a result of the stoppage. In the case of piece rate workers, the average daily earning for the previous month shall be taken to be the daily wages. No other compensation will be admissible in case of such stoppage. Whenever practicable, reasonable notice shall be given of resumption of normal work.

(3) In case where workmen are laid off for short periods on account of failure of plant or a temporary curtailment of production, the period of un-employment shall be treated as compulsory leave either with or without pay, as the case may be. When, however, workmen have to be laid off for an indefinitely long period, their services may be terminated after giving them due notice or pay in lieu thereof.

(4) The employer may in the event of a strike affecting either wholly or partially any section or department of the establishment close down neither wholly or partially such section or department and any other section or department affected by such closing down. The fact of such closure shall be notified by notices put on the notice board in the section or department concerned and in the time-keeper's office, if any, as soon as practicable. The workmen concerned shall also be notified by a general notice, prior to resumption of work, as to when work will be resumed.

15. Termination of Employment.—(1) For terminating employment of a permanent workmen, notice in writing shall be given either by the employer or the workman one month's notice in the case of monthly rated workmen and two week's notice in the case of other workmen. One month's or two weeks' pay, as the case may be, may be paid in lieu of notice.

(2) No temporary workman whether monthly-rated, weekly-rated or piece-rated and no probationer, badli or casual worker entitled to any notice or pay in lieu thereof if his services are terminated, but the services of a temporary workman shall not be terminated as a punishment unless he has been given an opportunity of explaining the charges of misconduct alleged against him in the manner prescribed in Paragraph 14.

(3) Where the employment of any workman is terminated, the wages earned by him and other dues, if any, shall be paid before the expiry of the second working day from the date on which his employment is terminated.

16. Disciplinary Action for Misconduct.—(1) A workman may be fined up to two per cent of his wages in a month for the following acts and omissions, namely:—

Note.—Specify the acts and omissions which the employer may notify with the previous approval..... of the prescribed authority in pursuance of section 8 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (4 of 1936).

(2) A workman may be suspended for a period not exceeding four days at a time, or dismissed without notice or any compensation in lieu of notice, if he is found to be guilty of misconduct.

(3) The following acts and omissions shall be treated as misconduct:—

(a) wilful insubordinate or disobedience, whether alone or in combination with others, to any lawful and reasonable order of a superior;

(b) theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property;

(c) wilful damage to or loss of employer's goods.

- or property;
 - (d) taking or giving bribes or any illegal gratification;
 - (e) habitual absence without leave or absence without leave for more than 10 days;
 - (f) habitual late attendance;
 - (g) habitual breach of any law applicable to the establishment;
 - (h) riotous or disorderly behaviour during working hours at the establishment or any act subversive of discipline;
 - (i) habitual negligence or neglect of work;
 - (j) frequent repetition of any act or omission for which a fine may be imposed to a maximum of 2 per cent. of the wages in a month;
 - (k) striking work or inciting others to strike work in contravention of the provisions of any law or rule having the force of law.
- (4) (a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against a workman is contemplated or is pending or where criminal proceedings against him in respect of any offence are under investigation or trial and the employer is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to place the workman under suspension, he may by order in writing suspend him with effect from such date as may be specified in the order. A statement setting out in detail the reasons for such suspension shall be supplied to the workman within a week from the date of suspension.
- (b) A workman who is placed under suspension under clause (a) shall, during the period of such suspension, be paid a subsistence allowance at the following rates, namely:—
- (i) Where the enquiry contemplated or pending is departmental the subsistence allowance shall, for the first ninety days from the date of suspension be equal to one-half of the basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensation allowance to which the workman would have been entitled if he were on leave with wages. If the departmental enquiry gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding ninety days, the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourths of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowance:

Provided that where such enquiry is prolonged beyond a period of ninety days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall, for the period exceeding ninety days, be reduced to one-fourth of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowance.

- (ii) Where the enquiry is by an outside agency or, as the case may be, where criminal proceedings against the workman are under investigation or trial the subsistence allowance shall, for the first one hundred and eighty days from the date of suspension, be equal to one-half of his basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which the workman would have been entitled to if he were on leave. If such enquiry or criminal proceedings gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding one hundred and eighty days, the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourths of such wages:

Provided that where such enquiry or criminal proceedings is prolonged beyond a period of one hundred and eighty days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall, for the period exceeding one hundred and eighty days, be reduced to one-fourth of such wages.

- (c) If on the conclusion of the enquiry or, as the case may be, of the criminal proceedings, the workman has been found guilty of the charges framed against him and it is considered, after giving the workman concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed, that an order of dismissal or suspension or fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank would meet the ends of justice, the employer shall pass an order accordingly:

Provided that when an order of dismissal is passed under this clause, the workman shall be deemed to have been absent from duty during the period of suspension and shall not be entitled to any remuneration for such period, and the subsistence allowance already paid to him shall not be recovered:

Provided further that where the period between the date on which the workman was suspended from duty pending the inquiry or investigation or trial and the date on which an order of suspension was passed under this clause exceeds four days, the workman shall be deemed to have been suspended only for four days or for such shorter period as is specified in the said order of suspension and for the remaining period he shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting subsistence allowance paid to him for such period:

Provided also that where an order imposing fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank is passed under this clause, the workman shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period:

Provided also that in the case of a workman to whom the provision of clause (2) of Article 311 of the Constitution apply, the provisions of that Article shall be compiled with:

- (d) If on the conclusion of the inquiry, or as the case may be, of the criminal proceedings, the workman has been found to be not guilty of any of the charges framed against him, he shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period.

- (e) The payment of subsistence allowance under this standing order shall be subject to the workman concerned not taking up any employment during the period of suspension.

(5) In awarding punishment under this standing order, the manager shall take into account any gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any, of the workman and any other extenuating or aggravating circumstances, that may exist. A copy of the order passed by the manager shall be supplied to the workman concerned.

17. Complaints.—All complaints arising out of employment including those relating to unfair treatment or wrongful exaction on the part of the employer or his agent, shall be submitted to the manager or other person specified in this behalf with the right of appeal to the employer.

18. Certificate on termination of service.—Every permanent workman shall be entitled to a service certificate at the time of his dismissal, discharge or retirement from service.

19. Liability of Manager.—The Manager of the establishment shall personally be held responsible for the proper and faithful observance of the standing orders.

20. (1) Any person desiring to prefer an appeal in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act shall draw up a memorandum of appeal setting out the grounds of appeal and forward it in triplicate to the appellate authority, accompanied by a certified copy of the standing orders, amendments or modifications, as the case may be.

(2) The appellate authority shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity or being hears, confirm the standing orders, amendments or modifications as certified by the certifying officer unless it considers that there are reasons for giving the other parties to the proceedings a hearing before a final decision is made in the appeal.

(3) Where the appellate authority does not confirm the standing orders, amendments or modification it shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal and direct notice thereof to be given—

- (a) where the appeal is filed by the employer or a workman to trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishments, and where there are no such trade unions to the representatives of workmen elected under clause (b) of rule 6, or as the case may be to the employer;
- (b) where the appeal is filed by a trade union to the employer and all other trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishment;
- (c) where the appeal is filed by the representative of the workmen, to the employer and any other workman whom the appellate authority joins as a party to the appeal.

(4) The appellant shall furnish each of the respondents with a copy of the memorandum of appeal.

(5) The appellate authority may at any state call for any evidence it considers necessary for the disposal of the appeal.

(6) On the date fixed, under sub-rule (3) for the hearing of the appeal, the appellate authority shall take such evidence as it may have called for or consider to be relevant.

21. Exhibition of standing orders.—A copy of these orders in English and in Hindi shall be posted at the manager's office and on a notice board maintained at or near the main entrance to the establishment and shall be kept in a legible condition.

Simla-2, the 12th September, 1973

No. 5-44/73-SI(Estt.).—In exercise of the powers vested in him under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the following rules in respect of Himachal Pradesh Industries Department (including Geological and Weights and Measures), Class-IV Services in regard to the following matters namely:—

- (i) the method of recruitment to Class IV Service of the Industries Department (including Geological and Weights and Measures), Himachal Pradesh;
- (ii) the qualifications necessary for appointment to such service and posts; and
- (iii) the conditions of service of persons appointed to such service and posts for purposes of probation, confirmation, seniority and promotion.

RECRUITMENT RULES

PART I

GENERAL

1. Short title and commencement.—(a) These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Industries Department, Class IV Service (Recruitment, Promotion and Certain Conditions of Service) Rules, 1973.

(b) These rules shall come into force from the date of their publication in the official Gazette.

2. Definition.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) "Recognised School" means any school run, managed and controlled by any State or Central Government or any other school declared or recognised by the Government.
- (b) "Government" means the Himachal Pradesh Government.
- (c) "The Service" means the Himachal Pradesh Industries Department Class IV Service.
- (d) "Direct Appointment" means an appointment made otherwise than by promotion from amongst the members of service or by transfer of an official already in the service of the Himachal Pradesh Government or of the Union.

- (e) "Scheduled Caste" means castes, races or tribes specified in the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, as amended by section 19(1) read with the First Schedule of the State of Himachal Pradesh Act, 1970 (53 of 1970) and as it may further be amended from time to time.
- (f) "Scheduled Tribes" means the tribes or tribal communities or parts of, or groups within tribes of tribal communities specified in the Schedule to the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order, 1950, as amended by section 20(1) read with the Third Schedule of the State of Himachal Pradesh, Act, 1970 (53 of 1970) as it may further be amended from time to time.
- (g) "Member" means a member of Himachal Pradesh Industries Department Class IV Service.
- (h) "Departmental Promotion Committee" means a Departmental Promotion Committee constituted by the Government.
- (i) "Appointing Authority" means the authority competent to order appointments to the categories of posts in the service.

PART II

RECRUITMENT TO SERVICE

3. Character of posts.—The character (i.e. designation, category, grade etc.) of the various posts included in the service and their rates of pay shall be as indicated in Appendix "A" to these rules and as refused from time to time by the Government.

4. Authority empowered to making appointment.—All appointments to the posts shall be made by the Director of Industries Himachal Pradesh or any other authority declared as appointing authority by the Director of Industries, under this rule.

5. Nationality, eligibility and age etc.—(1) No person shall be eligible for appointment to any post in the Service unless he is:

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or
- (e) a Tibetan Refugee who came over to India before 1st January 1962 with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (f) a person of Indian Origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India:

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India:

Provided further that if he belongs to category (f), the certificate of eligibility will be valid for a period of one year from the date of this appointment, after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired the Indian citizenship.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be admitted to an examination or interview and he may also provisionally be appointed by the Government subject to the production of the necessary eligibility certificate from the Government of India.

(2) Unless he is already in Government service, a candidate shall be required to produce:—

- (a) a certificate of good moral character from the Head of his educational or technical Institution last attended;
- (b) certificate of good moral character from two responsible persons not being his relatives, who are well acquainted with him in private life and unconnected with his school or other educational institution;
- (c) a medical certificate, as required under the Rules;
- (d) a declaration to the effect that he has not more than one living wife.

No person who has more than one wife living or having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reasons of its taking place during the lifetime of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the service.

Provided that the competent authority may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of sub-rule 2(d) of rule 5 above.

(3) A candidate must not be less than 18 years and more than 27 years of age on the date of his appointment:

Provided that the minimum and maximum age limit as prescribed above can be relaxed in accordance with the provisions of Rules in force:

Provided further that the maximum age limit may be relaxed in the case of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes candidates, displaced and other special categories in accordance with the instructions issued by Government in that behalf from time to time.

6. Verification of antecedents.—Antecedents of all persons appointed by direct recruitment shall be verified immediately and those appointed by transfer and whose antecedents have not been verified previously shall also be sent for verification immediately after persons join the post(s) in the Department:

7. Educational qualification of candidates.—No person shall be appointed to the service, unless in the case of appointment to the post of—

- (i) Daftri.—He has passed Middle standard of a recognised School or Board of Education or above. The educational qualification will be relaxable in the case of Departmental Promotions.
- (ii) Peons.—He has passed Middle standard of a recognised school or Board of Education or above.
- (iii) Chowkidar.—He has a knowledge of reading and writing Hindi.
- (iv) Chowkidar-cum-Sweeper.—He has a knowledge of reading and writing Hindi.
- (v) Sweeper/Sweeppress.—Nil.
- (vi) Malis.—He has passed Primary standard or above.

DESIRABLE:

Saving.—Nothing in these rules shall affect reservation and other concessions required to be provided for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the State Government from time to time in this regard.

9. Departmental Promotion Committee.—The Departmental Promotion Committee in respect of services shall be as constituted from time to time by the Director of Industries, Himachal Pradesh who is appointing authority under Rule 4.

The Departmental Promotion Committee shall also act as Selection Committee in respect of all posts in the service.

Offers of appointment shall be made strictly in accordance with the order in which the candidates are placed, by the Departmental Promotion Committee at the time of Selection.

PART III CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

10. Probation of Members of Service.—(i) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his service or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in Rule 4, may confirm such member in appointment or if his work or conduct, has in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, may dispense with his services, or revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment, or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of the extended period of probation as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed four years.

11. Scales of pay etc. of members of service.—The grades of pay of such Class of Service are mentioned in Appendix "A" provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to divert the Government of their inherent right to change the scales of pay either permanently or temporarily as they may deem fit.

12. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of the Rules made applicable to Himachal Pradesh Services from time to time.

13. Probation of Class III Service.—Every Class IV Government employee already in service of the Industries Department, Himachal Pradesh shall be considered for promotion along with direct candidates provided he fulfills the prescribed educational qualifications and other conditions of service.

14. Seniority of Members of Service.—(1) The persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall retain their relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be senior to all other in that grade.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules—

(a) Persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules.

(b) Persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules; shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (1) and (3) permanent officers of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in the grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions of rule (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the selecting authority. Persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection.

(i) Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority next to the person who joined earlier.

(iii) Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority if the fact of his joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Transfers.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the other offices or the Centre Government or the other Departments of the Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and transferees.—Transferees shall be senior to direct recruits appointed on the same date.

(6) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotions:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from such list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of the persons of promotion to the higher grade.

(7) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these Rules.

Mandatory memorandum.—A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the Recruitment Rules. Appointment should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below 3 promotees. Where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruitment shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reasons, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be rearranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

15. Leave and Pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the Rules applicable to the employees of Himachal Pradesh from time to time, unless one has already exercised option otherwise.

16. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the service shall be liable to transfer anywhere within the Himachal Pradesh.

17. In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these rules, members of the service shall be governed by the conditions of service of Himachal Pradesh Government Rules and instructions issued from time to time in this behalf.

PART III CONDITION OF SERVICE

10. Probation of members of service.—(i) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain in probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—Approved officiating service shall be taken as period spent on probation but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his service or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in Rule 4, may confirm such member in appointment, or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, may dispense with his service, or revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment, or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of the extended period of probation as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation.

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed four years.

11. Scales of pay etc. of members of service.—The grades of pay of such class of service are mentioned in Appendix 'A' provided that nothing herein contained shall to be deemed to divert the Government of their inherent right to change the scales of pay either permanently or temporarily as they may deem fit.

12. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of the Rules made applicable to Himachal Pradesh services from time to time.

13. Promotion to Class III Services.—Every Class IV Government employee already in service of the Labour, Employment and Training Department, Himachal Pradesh shall be considered for promotion along with direct candidates provided he fulfills the prescribed educational qualifications and other conditions of service.

14. Seniority of members of service.—(1) The persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall enblock be senior to all other in that grade.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules—

(a) persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules;

(b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules; shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (1) and (3) permanent officers of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in the grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions of rule (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the selecting authority. Persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

(i) Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

(ii) Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority next to the person who joined earlier;

(iii) Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority if the fact of his joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the other offices of the Central Government or the other Departments of the Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection of such transfer.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and transferees.—Transferees shall be senior to direct recruits appointed on the same date.

(6) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotions:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible person shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from such list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of the persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(7) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these rules.

Explanatory memorandum.—A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the Recruitment Rules. Appointment should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75 per cent of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25 per cent for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below 3 promotees. Where the quotas are 50 per cent each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reasons, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be rearranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

15. Leave and pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the rules applicable to the employees of Himachal Pradesh from time to time, unless one has already exercised option otherwise.

16. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the service shall be liable to transfer anywhere within the Himachal Pradesh.

17. In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these rules. members of the service shall be governed by the conditions of service of Himachal Pradesh Government rules and instructions issued from time to time in this behalf.

Explanations.—For the purpose of these rules—

(a) Persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules shall be considered to be permanent members of the grade.

(b) The inter se seniority fixed by the parent Department/States in case of persons inherited from erstwhile Territorial Council, Himachal Pradesh and the State of Punjab as a consequence of amalgamation/re-organisation will not be subject to any change in their inter se seniority on amalgamation/integration. The seniority of staff inherited from Territorial Council/Punjab vis-a-vis old Himachal Pradesh employees will be determined as per rules/orders of the Government.

(ii) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (iii) below, permanent members of each grade shall rank senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(iii) Direct recruitment.—Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (ii) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment, on the recommendations of the Departmental Selection Committee; persons appointed as a result of earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selections:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the selection list and shall rank in the seniority list next to the persons who joined earlier:

Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority, if the fact of his joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for the reasons to be recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so and permits him to join after the scheduled date.

(iv) Promotees.—(a) the relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of their merit.

(b) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(v) Transfers.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the other offices of the Central Government or other Departments of any State Government or any other Department of Himachal Pradesh Government, shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer:

Provided that nothing contained in the provisions of these rules, shall operate to prevent transfer of service by the Head of Department from one 'Circle Cadre' to another 'Circle cadre' or from 'Head Office Cadre' to 'Circle Cadre' or vice versa only in the event of creation or abolition of a Circle/Division or on account of administrative reasons in the public interest and in that case the transferee shall be assigned relative seniority in the new cadre in their respective grades according to the length of service rendered in those grades.

(vi) Relative seniority of direct recruits and transferees.—Transferees shall be senior to direct recruits appointed on the same date.

(vii) Relative seniority of promotees and direct recruits.—The relative seniority of the promotees and direct recruits will be in accordance with roster maintained for the purpose i.e. promotees first and then direct recruits.

15. Confirmation.—The confirmation of each member will depend on good reports earned by him provided that there is permanent vacancy available for him.

16. Leave and Pension.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the rules instructions/executive orders as are made applicable or framed by the Government from time to time.

17. Power of relaxation.—Where the Government is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes undue hardship in any particular case, it may after consultation with Finance Department where financial implications are involved by order for reasons to be recorded in writing, dispense with or relax the requirement of that rule to such extent, and subject to such conditions, as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.

18. Repeal.—All the orders or rules as issued by the Himachal Pradesh administration or by the Chief Engineer on the subject from time to time shall stand repealed provided that any action taken or any orders passed under the provision of the orders or rules hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been taken or passed under the corresponding provisions of these order rules.

 - (ii) by transfer or deputation of an official already in the service of the Government.

When any vacancy occurs or is about to occur in the service, the head of department or any other authority declared as such by the Government, as the case may be, shall determine the manner in which it shall be filled up.

No official shall have any claim to appointment by promotion or transfer as of right:

Provided further that in the case of direct recruitment, reservation of vacancies for candidates belonging to scheduled castes and scheduled tribes respectively, shall be, as prescribed by the Government from time to time. In case suitable candidates belonging to scheduled castes and scheduled tribes are not available, the posts shall be treated as un-reserved:

Provided further that no person shall be eligible for appointment to the service unless he/she possesses knowledge of customs, manners and dialects of Himachal Pradesh.

9. Departmental Promotion Committee.—The Departmental Promotion Committee shall be constituted by the Government from time to time. The Departmental Promotion Committee shall also act as selection committee.

PART III

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

10. Probation of members of service.—(1) Persons appointed to the service shall remain on probation for a period of two years:

Provided that—

- (a) any period, after appointment to the service, spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards the period of probation fixed under this rule;
- (b) in the case of an appointment by transfer, any period of work in similar rank or above, prior to appointment to the service may, at the discretion of the appointing authority be allowed to count towards the period of probation fixed under this rule;
- (c) an officiating appointment in the service shall be reckoned as a period spent on probation but no member who has thus officiated shall, on the completion of the prescribed period of probation, be entitled to be confirmed, unless he is appointed against a permanent post.

(2) If the work and conduct of a person appointed to the service during the period of probation i.e., in the opinion of the appointing authority, not satisfactory, it may:

- (a) dispense with his services, if recruited by direct appointment; or
- (b) if recruited otherwise—
 - (i) revert him to his former post; or
 - (ii) deal with him/her in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his/her previous appointment permit.

(3) On the satisfactory completion of the period of probation of a person, the appointing authority may—

- (a) if his/her work and conduct, has in its opinion been satisfactory—
 - (i) confirm such person, from the date of his/her appointment, if appointed against a permanent post; or
 - (ii) confirm such person from the date from which a permanent vacancy exists, if appointed against a temporary vacancy;
- (b) If his/her work or conduct has, in its opinion, not been satisfactory—
 - (i) dispense with his/her services if recruited by direct appointment or if recruited otherwise, revert him/her to his/her former post or deal with him/her in such manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment permit; or
 - (ii) extend his/her period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided that the total period of probation including extensions, if any, shall not exceed three years.

11. Seniority of members of service.—The seniority interests of members of the service shall be determined from the dates of their continuous appointments in the service:

Provided that in the case of members appointed directly the order of merit determined by the D.P.C. shall not, be disturbed and the persons appointed as a result of an early selection shall be senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

Provided further that in the case of two or more members appointed on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as follows:—

- (a) a member recruited by direct appointment shall be senior to a member recruited otherwise;
- (b) a member recruited by promotion shall be senior to a person recruited by transfer;
- (c) in the case of members recruited by promotion or transfer, seniority shall be determined according to the seniority of such members in the appointments from which they were promoted or transferred; and
- (d) in the case of members recruited by transfer from different cadres, their seniority shall be determined according to pay, preference being given to a member who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same, then their length of service in these appointments and if the length of such service is also the same, an elder member shall be ranked senior to a younger member:

Provided that in the case of members whose period of probation is extended under rule 7, the date of appointment for the purposes of this rule shall be deemed to have been deferred to the extent the period of probation is extended.

12. Pay of members of the service.—Members of the service shall be entitled to such scales of pay as may be sanctioned by the Government from time to time for the posts to which they are appointed.

13. Leave, Pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other connected matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by such rules and regulations, as may have been or may hereafter be framed by the competent authority under any law or rules made thereunder.

14. Disciplinary matters.—In respect of matters relating to discipline, punishment and appeals, the members of the service shall be governed by the rules, instructions/ executive orders as are made applicable by the Government from time to time:—

Provided that the nature of penalties which may be imposed, the authority competent to impose such penalties and appellate authority subject to the provisions of any law or rules made under Article 309 of the Constitution of India, shall be as specified in Appendix 'B' to these rules.

15. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the service shall be liable to transfer under orders of the appointing authority prescribed in rule 4 from posts within their respective classes of appointment, to other posts in the department and also anywhere within the jurisdiction of such authority.

16. Oath of allegiance.—Every member of the service unless he has already done so, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance to India and the Constitution of India as by law established.

17. Power to relax.—Where the Government is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes undue hardship in any particular case, it may, by such order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax the requirements of any of the provisions of these rules as it may consider necessary for dealing with case in a just and equitable manner.

क्रमांक-पी-एस-2-मिस 72-8536.—चूँकि आपने ग्राम पंचायत, राजगढ़ की विशेष बैठक दिनांक 30-8-1973 को बुलाने के लिए नोटिस संख्या, 530/73, दिनांक 28-8-1973 को नोटिस जारी किया जबकि यह नोटिस हिमाचल प्रदेश ग्राम पंचायती राज नियम 1971 के नियम 22 के अनुसार बैठक के दिनांक से कम से कम 7 दिन पूर्व जारी होना चाहिए था व इस प्रकार ग्राम पंचायत नियम 22 के प्रावधान की उल्लंघना की गई है, व

चूँकि आपने 28-8-1973 को जारी किये गये एजेण्डा के अनुसार पंचायत की 30-8-73 की अवैध बैठक में जिला स्तर पर पंचायत सम्मेलन के आयोजन का प्रस्ताव संख्या 5 पारित करवाया जोकि पंचायतराज अधिनियम 1968 की धारा 18 के अनुसार पंचायत का कर्तव्य नहीं था, व बैठक की समस्त कार्यवाही ग्राम पंचायत नियम 22 के प्रावधान की उल्लंघना के कारण अवैध थी व पंचायत के प्रस्ताव से स्पष्ट है कि आप अपने द्वारा निजी रूप से किये जा रहे कार्य में पंचायत को अवैध रूप से शामिल किया।

चूँकि आपने बिना पूर्व स्वीकृति प्राप्त किये पंचायत की ओर से इशतहारों द्वारा यह गलत प्रचार किया कि माननीय पंचायत मन्त्री सम्मेलन की अव्यक्षता करेंगे व इसी प्रकार कुछ अन्य सडस्यगण हिमाचल प्रदेश विधान सभा के नाम भी इन इशतहारों में दिये जबकि इस सम्बन्ध में उनसे स्वीकृति प्राप्त नहीं की गई थी इस प्रकार के अवान्छनीय व अनाधिकृत इशतहारवाजी से पंचायत प्रधान के पद का दुरुपयोग किया।

चूँकि पंचायत के उक्त प्रस्ताव संख्या 5 को अधोहस्ताक्षरित द्वारा दिनांक 13-9-1973 को जारी हुए आदेश पत्र पृष्ठांकन संख्या—8174-83 द्वारा स्थगित किया गया था व आदेश दिये गये थे कि उक्त प्रस्ताव अनुसार कोई कार्यवाही न की जाये पर फिर भी उक्त आदेश की उल्लंघना कर दिनांक 16-9-1973 को पंचायत सम्मेलन का आयोजन किया, व

चूँकि आपके द्वारा किये गये उक्त कार्य अनियमित व अनाधिकृत थे जिनके निष्पादन में आपने पंचायत के प्रधान पद का दुरुपयोग किया व आपको ग्राम पंचायत, राजगढ़ के प्रधान होने के नाते अपने कर्तव्यों के पालन में अनाचार का दोषी ठहराया जाता है।

अतः मैं शमशेर सिंह सिद्धू, जिलाधीश सिरमौर, नाहन, हिमाचल प्रदेश ग्राम पंचायती राज नियम 1971 के नियम 77 के अनुसार यह आदेश देता हूँ कि आप इस नोटिस के जारी होने के दिनांक से 15 दिन के भीतर कारण बताएं कि क्यों न आपको हिमाचल प्रदेश, ग्राम पंचायती राज अधिनियम 1968 की धारा 54 के अन्तर्गत प्रधान के पद से निलम्बित किया जाये।

अगर निश्चित अवधि के भीतर आपसे कोई स्पष्टीकरण अधोहस्ताक्षरित को प्राप्त न हुआ तो यह समझा जायेगा कि आप अपने दोष को मानते हैं तथा बिना और कोई मौका दिये आपके विरुद्ध इस मामले में आगामी कार्यवाही अमल में लाई जावेगी।

2. चूंकि दिनांक 30-8-1973 की विशेष बैठक का नोटिस दिनांक 28-8-1973 को जारी किया गया था जबकि हिमाचल प्रदेश ग्राम पंचायत नियम 1971 के नियम 22 के अनुसार कम से कम 7 दिन का नोटिस जारी होना आवश्यक था, अतः दिनांक 30-8-1973 की बैठक अवैध थी और ऐसी बैठक में पारित प्रस्ताव भी अवैध थे, व

3. चूंकि पंचायतराज अधिनियम की धारा 18 के अन्तर्गत यह ग्राम पंचायतों का कर्तव्य नहीं कि वे जिला स्तर पर पंचायत के सम्मेलन का आयोजन ऐसा कि इस प्रस्ताव संख्या 5 दिनांक 30-8-1973 द्वारा निश्चित किया गया था तथा इस सम्मेलन के सम्पूर्ण खर्च की जिम्मेदारी श्री जोगिन्द्र सिंह प्रधान पर डालने के निश्चय में यह भान होता है कि श्री जोगिन्द्र सिंह द्वारा पंचायत के नाम पर किये जा रहे अनाधिकृत कार्य में आपकी भी सहमती थी, व

4. चूंकि पंचायत का प्रस्ताव संख्या 5 दिनांक 30-8-1973 ग्राम पंचायतों के आदेश पत्र पृष्ठांक संख्या 8179-83, दिनांक 13-9-1973 द्वारा इन आदेश सहित कि उक्त प्रस्ताव के अनुसार कोई कार्यवाही न की जाए अधिनियमित किया गया था परन्तु इसके उल्लंघन का सम्मेलन का आयोजन किया गया जोकि आदेशों की उल्लंघना है, व

5. चूंकि श्री जोगिन्द्र सिंह प्रधान, ग्राम पंचायत, राजगढ़ द्वारा पंचायत की ओर से जारी किये गये इस्तहारी द्वारा यह प्रचार किया गया कि इस सम्मेलन की अध्यक्षता माननीय पंचायत मंत्री श्री हरदयाल जी करेंगे जबकि माननीय मंत्री से इसकी पूर्ण स्वीकृति नहीं ली गई थी। इसी प्रकार कुछ अन्य सदस्य विधान सभा के नाम भी इन इस्तहारों में दिये गये जबकि उनसे पूर्व स्वीकृति प्राप्त नहीं की गई जोकि अवैधान्कृत है, व

6. चूंकि आपने उक्त अनियमित व अनाधिकृत कार्यों में अपनी सहमती दी जिस कारण आपको ग्राम पंचायत राजगढ़ के पंच होने के नाते अपने कर्तव्यों के पालन में अनाचार का दोषी ठहराया जाता है।

अतः मैं शमशेर सिंह सिद्ध, जिलाधीश सिरमौर मण्डल नाहन, हिमाचल प्रदेश ग्राम पंचायत नियम 1971 के नियम 77 के अनुसार यह आदेश देता हूँ कि आप इस नोटिस के जारी होने के दिनांक से 15 दिन के भीतर कारण बताएं कि क्यों न आपको हिमाचल प्रदेश पंचायतीराज अधिनियम 1968 की धारा 54 के अन्तर्गत निलम्बित किया जाये।

अगर निश्चित अवधि के भीतर आपसे कोई स्पष्टीकरण प्राप्त न हुआ तो यह समझा जायेगा कि आप अपने दोष को मानते हैं तथा बिना और कोई मौका दिये आपके विरुद्ध इस मामले में आगामी कार्यवाही अमल में लाई जायेगी।

शमशेर सिंह सिद्ध,
जिलाधीश, जिला सिरमौर।

MINISTRY OF LAW

(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 9th August, 1869/Śravana 18, 1891 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the Chief Justice of India discharging the functions of the President on the 9th August, 1969; and is hereby published for general information:—

THE BANKING COMPANIES (ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER OF UNDERTAKINGS) ACT, 1969
(No. 22 OF 1969)

[9th August, 1969]

An Act to provide for the acquisition and transfer of the undertakings of certain banking companies in order to serve better the needs of development of the economy in conformity with national policy and objectives and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twentieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 19th day of July, 1969.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “banking company” does not include a foreign company within the meaning of section 591 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956).;

(b) “corresponding new bank”, in relation to an existing bank, means the body corporate specified against such bank in column 2 of the First Schedule;

(c) “Custodian” means the person who becomes, or is appointed, a Custodian under section 10;

(d) “existing bank” means a banking company specified in column 1 of the First Schedule, being a company the deposits of which, as shown in the return as on the last Friday of June, 1969, furnished to the Reserve Bank under section 27 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, (10 of 1949), were not less than rupees fifty crores;

(e) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(f) “Tribunal” means a Tribunal constituted under section 7;

(g) words and expressions used herein and not defined but defined in the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949), have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

CHAPTER II

(TRANSFER OF THE UNDERTAKINGS OF EXISTING BANKS)

3. Establishment of corresponding new banks and business thereof.—(1) On the commencement of this Act, there shall be constituted such corresponding new banks as are specified in the First Schedule.

(2) The paid-up capital of every corresponding new bank constituted under sub-section (1) shall, until any provision is made in this behalf in any scheme made under section 13, be equal to the paid-up capital of the existing bank in relation to which it is the corresponding new bank.

(3) The entire capital of each corresponding new bank shall stand vested in and allotted to the Central Government.

(4) Every corresponding new bank shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall sue and be sued in its name.

(5) Every corresponding new bank shall carry on and transact the business of banking as defined in clause (b) of section 5 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949) and may engage in one or more forms of business specified in sub-section (1) of section 6 of that Act; and shall have power to acquire and hold property, whether movable or immovable, for the purposes of its business and to dispose of the same.

(6) Every corresponding new bank shall establish a reserve fund to which shall be transferred the share premiums and the balance, if any, standing to the credit of the existing bank in relation to which it is the corresponding new bank, and such further sums, if any, as may be transferred in accordance with the provisions of section 17 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949).

4. Undertaking of existing banks to vest in corresponding new banks.—On the commencement of this Act, the undertaking of every existing bank shall be transferred to, and shall vest in, the corresponding new bank.

5. General effect of vesting.—(1) The undertaking of each existing bank shall be deemed to include all assets, rights, powers, authorities and privileges and all property, movable and immovable, cash balance, reserve funds, investments and all other rights and interests arising out of such property as were immediately before the commencement of this Act in the ownership, possession, power or control of the existing bank in relation to the undertaking, whether within or without India, and all books of accounts, registers, records and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto and shall also be deemed to include all borrowings, liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and obligations of whatever kind then subsisting of the existing bank in relation to the undertaking.

(2) If, according to the laws of any country outside India, the provisions of this Act by themselves are not effective to transfer or vest any asset or liability situated in that country which forms part of the undertaking of an existing bank to, or in, the corresponding new bank, the affairs of the existing bank in relation to such asset or liability shall, on and from the commencement of this Act, stand entrusted to the chief executive officer for the time being of the corresponding new bank, and the chief executive officer may exercise all powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the existing bank for the purpose of effectively transferring such assets and discharging such liabilities.

(3) The chief executive officer of the corresponding new bank shall, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sub-section (2), take all such steps as may be required by the laws of any such country outside India for the purpose of effecting such transfer or vesting, and may either himself or through any person authorised by him in this behalf realise any asset and discharge any liability of the existing bank.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), on the commencement of this act, no person shall make any claim or demand or take any proceeding in India against any existing bank or any person acting in its name or on its behalf except in so far as may be necessary for enforcing the provisions of this section or except in so far as it relates to any offence committed by such person.

(5) Unless otherwise expressly provided by this Act, all contracts, deeds, bonds, agreements, powers of attorney, grants of legal representation and other instruments of whatever nature subsisting or having effect immediately before the commencement of this Act and to which the existing bank is a party or which are in favour of the existing bank shall be of as full force and effect against or in favour of the corresponding new bank and may be enforced or acted upon as fully and effectually as if in the place of the existing bank the corresponding new bank had been a party thereto or as if they had been issued in favour of the corresponding new bank.

(6) If, on the date of commencement of this Act, any suit, appeal or other proceeding of whatever nature is pending by or against the existing bank, the same shall not be discontinued or be, in any way, prejudicially affected by reason of the transfer of the undertaking of the existing bank or of anything contained in this Act, but the suit, appeal or other proceeding may be continued, prosecuted and enforced by or against the corresponding new bank.

(7) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as applying to the assets, rights, powers, authorities and privileges and property, movable and immovable cash balances and investments in any country outside India (and other rights, interests arising out of such property) of any existing bank operating in that country if, under the laws of that country, it is not permissible for a banking company owned or controlled by Government, to carry on the business of banking there.

CHAPTER III

PAYMENT AND DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION

6. Payment of compensation.— (1) The Central Government shall give compensation to each existing bank for the liquidation of its undertaking and such compensation shall be determined in accordance with the principles specified in the Second Schedule and in the manner hereinafter set out, that is to say,—

(a) where the amount of compensation can be fixed by agreement, it shall be determined in accordance with such agreement;

(b) where no such agreement can be reached, the Central Government shall refer the matter to the Tribunal within a period of three months from the date on which the Central Government and the existing bank fail to reach an agreement regarding the amount of compensation.

(2) Notwithstanding that separate valuations are calculated under the principles specified in the Second Schedule in respect of the several matters referred to therein, the amount of compensation to be given shall be deemed to be a single compensation to be given for the undertaking as a whole.

(3) The amount of compensation determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be paid to each existing bank, at its option,—

(a) in saleable or otherwise transferable promissory notes or stock certificates of the Central Government, issued and repayable at par, and maturing at the end of ten years from the date of commencement of this Act, and carrying interest at the rate of four and a half per cent per annum; or

(b) in saleable or otherwise transferable promissory notes or stock certificates of the Central Government, issued and repayable at par, and maturing at the end of thirty years from the date of commencement of this Act and carrying interest at the rate of five and a half per cent per annum; or

(c) partly in such number of securities specified in clause (a) and partly in such number of securities specified in clause (b), as may be required by the existing bank.

(4) The option referred to in sub-section (3) shall be exercised by every existing bank within three months from the commencement of this Act (or within such further time, not exceeding three months, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify) and the option so exercised shall be final and shall not be altered or rescinded after it has been exercised.

(5) An existing bank which omits or fails to exercise the option referred to in sub-section (3), within the time specified in sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have exercised its option in favour of the securities specified in clause (a) of sub-section (3).

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, any existing bank may, before the expiry of three months from the commencement of this Act (or within such further time, not exceeding three months as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify) apply to the Central Government for an interim payment of one-half of the amount of its paid-up share capital and thereupon the Central Government shall, if the existing bank agrees in writing to distribute the amount so paid to its shareholders in accordance with their rights and interests, pay the same to the existing bank in securities specified in sub-section (3) in accordance with the option exercised, or deemed to have been exercised, under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5), as the case may be:

Provided that where the Central Government makes an interim payment under this section, it shall pay to the existing bank by a cheque drawn on the Reserve Bank such sum as would enable the existing bank to distribute—

(a) in cash one-half of the amount paid-up on the shares held by a person if one-half of the amount paid-up on the shares held by such a person does not exceed five thousand rupees; and

(b) where one-half of the amount paid-up on the shares held by a person exceeds five thousand rupees, such sum as would enable the existing bank to pay to the holder of such shares a sum of five thousand rupees in cash and the balance of one-half of the amount paid-up on the shares held by such person in securities specified in sub-section (3).

(7) The interim payment made to an existing bank shall be set off against the total amount of the compensation payable to it under this Act and the balance of the compensation remaining outstanding after such payment shall be given to the existing bank in securities specified in sub-section (3) in accordance with the option exercised, or deemed to have been exercised, under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5), as the case may be.

(8) Where the amount of compensation, payable in the form of securities under this section is not a multiple of one hundred rupees, any excess over the highest such multiple shall be paid by a cheque drawn on the Reserve Bank.

(9) Nothing contained in sub-section (3) shall affect the the rights inter se between an existing bank and any other person who may have an interest in such bank and such other person shall be entitled to enforce his interest against the compensation awarded to the existing bank but not against the Central Government or the corresponding new bank.

7. Constitution of the Tribunal.—(1) The Central Government may, for the purposes of this Act, constitute one or more Tribunals each of which shall consist of a Chairman and two other members.

(2) The Chairman of a Tribunal shall be a person who is, or has been a Judge of a High Court, or of the Supreme Court, and, of the two other members of a Tribunal, one shall be a person who, in the opinion of the Central Government, has had experience of banking and the other shall be a person who is a Chartered Accountant within the meaning of the Chartered Accountants' Act, 1949 (38 of 1949).

(3) If, for any reason, a vacancy occurs in the office of the Chairman, or any other member of a Tribunal, the Central Government may fill the vacancy by appointing another person thereto in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) and any proceeding may be continued before such Tribunal so constituted from the stage at which the vacancy had occurred.

(4) A Tribunal may for the purpose of determining any compensation payable under this Act, choose one or more persons having special knowledge or experience of any relevant matter to assist it in the determination of such compensation.

8. Tribunal to have powers of a Civil Court.—Every Tribunal shall have the powers of a Civil Court, while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of documents;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavits;

(d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents.

9. Procedure of the Tribunal.—(1) Every Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

(2) Every Tribunal may hold the whole or any part of its inquiry in camera.

(3) any arithmetical or clerical error in any order of a Tribunal or any error arising therein from an accidental slip or omission may, at any time, be corrected by such Tribunal either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties.

CHAPTER IV

MANAGEMENT OF CORRESPONDING NEW BANKS

10. Head office and branches.—(1) The Head office of each corresponding new bank shall be at such place as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, and, until any such place is so specified, shall be at the place at which the head office of the existing bank, in relation to which it is the corresponding new bank, is on the date of the commencement of this Act, located.

(2) The general superintendence and direction of the affairs and business of a corresponding new bank shall, until any provision to the contrary is made under any scheme made under section 13, vest in a custodian, who shall be the chief executive officer of that bank and may exercise all powers and do all acts and things as may be exercised or done by that bank.

(3) The Chariman of the existing bank holding office as such immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be the Custodian of the corresponding new bank and shall receive the same emoluments as he was receiving immediately before such commencement:

Provided that the Central Government may, if the Chairman of an existing bank declines to become, or to continue to function as, a custodian of the corresponding new bank, or, if it is of opinion that it is necessary so to do, appoint any other person as the Custodian of a corresponding new bank and the Custodian so appointed shall receive such emoluments as the Central Government may specify in this behalf.

(4) The Custodian shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

11. Corresponding new bank to be guided by the directions of the Central Government.—(1) Every corresponding new bank shall, in the discharge of its functions, be guided by such directions in regard to matters of policy involving public interest as the Central Government may, after consultation with the Governor of the Reserve Bank, give.

(2) If any question arises whether a direction relates to a matter of policy involving public interest, it shall be referred to the Central Government and the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

12. Advisory Board to aid and advise the Custodian.—(1) There shall be an Advisory Board to aid and advise the Custodian in the discharge of his duties:

Provided that the Advisory Board shall be dissolved on the constitution of a Board of Directors in pursuance of a scheme made under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 13:

Provided further that the Central Government may, if it is of opinion that it is necessary so to do, dissolve the Advisory Board at any other time.

(2) The Advisory Board shall consist of representatives of the following, namely, the depositors of the corresponding new bank, employees of such bank, farmers, workers and artisans, to be elected in such manner and by such authority as may be prescribed, and shall also consist of such other persons as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

13. Power of Central Government to make scheme.—(1) The Central Government may, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, make a scheme for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the said scheme may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the capital structure of the corresponding new bank, so however that the paid-up capital of any such bank shall not be in excess of rupees fifteen crores;

(b) the constitution of the Board of Directors, by whatever name called, of the corresponding new bank and all such matters in connection therewith or incidental thereto as the Central Government may consider to be necessary or expedient;

(c) the reconstitution of any corresponding new bank into two or more corporations, the amalgamation of any corresponding new bank with any other corresponding new bank or with another banking institution, the transfer of the whole or any part of the undertaking of a corresponding new bank to any other banking institution or the transfer of the whole or any part of the undertaking of any other banking institution to a corresponding new bank;

(d) such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(3) Every Board of Directors of a corresponding new bank shall include representatives of the following, namely, the depositors of such bank, employees thereof, farmers, workers and artisans, to be elected or nominated in such manner as may be specified in the scheme made under sub-section (1).

(4) The Central Government may, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, make a scheme to amend or vary any scheme made under sub-section (1).

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

14. Closure of accounts and disposal of profits.—(1) Every corresponding new bank shall cause its books to be closed and balanced on the 31st day of December of each year and shall appoint, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, auditors for the audit of its accounts.

(2) Every auditor of a corresponding new bank shall be a person who is qualified to act as an auditor of a company under section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), and shall receive such remuneration as the Reserve Bank may fix in consultation with the Central Government.

(3) Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet and profit and loss account and a list of all books kept by the corresponding new bank, and it shall be the duty of the auditor to examine the balance-sheet and profit and loss account with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto, and in the performance of his duties, the auditor—

(a) shall have, at all reasonable times, access to the books, accounts and other documents of the corresponding new bank,

(b) may, at the expense of the corresponding new bank employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts, and

(c) may, in relation to such accounts, examine the Custodian or any member of the Advisory Board or any officer or employee of the corresponding new bank.

(4) Every auditor of a corresponding new bank shall make a report to the Central Government upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts and in every such report shall state—

(a) whether, in his opinion, the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all the necessary particulars and is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the affairs of the corresponding new bank, and in case he had called for any explanation or information, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory;

(b) whether or not the transactions of the corresponding new bank, which have come to his notice, have been within the powers of that bank;

(c) whether or not the returns received from the offices and branches of the corresponding new bank have been found adequate for the purpose of his audit;

(d) whether the profit and loss account shows a true balance of profit or loss for the period covered by such account; and

(e) any other matter which he considers should be brought to the notice of the Central Government.

(5) The report of the auditor shall be verified, signed and transmitted to the Central Government in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) The auditor shall also forward a copy of the audit report to the corresponding new bank and to the Reserve Bank.

(7) After making provision for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, contributions to staff and superannuation funds and all other matters for which provision is necessary under any law, or which are usually provided for by banking companies, a corresponding new bank shall transfer the balance of profits to the Central Government.

15. Removal from office of directors etc.—(1) Every person holding office as Chairman, managing or whole-time director of an existing bank shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have vacated office and every other director of such bank (hereinafter referred to as the 'continuing directors') shall, until directors are duly elected by such existing bank, be deemed to continue to hold such office.

(2) Until the Board of Directors of an existing bank is duly constituted by it, the continuing directors shall be deemed to constitute its Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as the 'continuing Board') and the Board of Directors or the continuing Board, as the case may be, may transact all or any of the following business, namely:—

(a) registration of the transfer or transmission of shares;

(b) arriving at an agreement about the amount of compensation payable under this Act or appearing before the Tribunal for obtaining a determination as to the amount of compensation;

(c) distribution to each shareholder of the amount of compensation received by it under this Act, for the acquisition of its undertaking;

(d) carrying on the business of banking in any country outside India if under the law in force in that country any bank, owned or controlled by Government, is prohibited from carrying on the business of banking there;

(e) carrying on any business other than the business of banking.

(3) The Board of Directors of an existing bank, or its continuing Board, as the case may be, may authorise all such expenditure as it may think fit for discharging any of the functions referred to in sub-section (2) and the Central Government may authorise the corresponding new bank to make an advance of the amount required by the existing bank in connection therewith and any amount so advanced shall be recouped from out of the compensation payable to the existing bank under this Act.

(4) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (1), all officers and other employees of an existing bank shall become, on the commencement of this Act, officers and employees of the corresponding new bank and shall hold their offices or services in that bank on the same terms and conditions and with the same rights to pension, gratuity and other matters as would have been admissible to them if the undertaking of the existing bank had not been transferred to and vested in the corresponding new bank and continue to do so unless and until their employment in the corresponding new bank is terminated or until their remuneration, terms or conditions are duly altered by the corresponding new bank.

(5) For the persons who immediately before the commencement of this Act were the trustees for any pension, provident, gratuity or other like fund constituted for the officers or other employees of an existing bank, there shall be substituted as trustees such persons as the Central Government may, by general or special order, specify.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of the services of any officer or other employee from an existing bank to a corresponding new bank shall not entitle such officer or any other employee to any compensation under this Act or any other law for the time being in force and no such claim shall be entertained by any court, tribunal or other authority.

16. Obligations as to fidelity and secrecy.—(1) Every corresponding new bank shall observe, except as otherwise required by law, the practices and usages customary among bankers, and, in particular, it shall not divulge any information relating to or to the affairs of its constituents except in circumstances in which it is, in accordance with law or practice and usage customary among bankers, necessary or appropriate for the corresponding new bank to divulge such information.

(2) Every director, member of a local board or a committee, or auditor, adviser, officer or other employee of a corresponding new bank shall, before entering upon his duties, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the form set out in the Third Schedule.

(3) Every Custodian of a corresponding new bank shall, as soon as possible, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the form set out in the Third Schedule.

17. Custodian to be public servant.—Every Custodian of a corresponding new bank shall be deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of Chapter IX of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

18. Certain defects not to invalidate acts or proceedings.—(1) All acts done by the Custodian, acting in good faith, shall, notwithstanding any defect in his appointment or in the procedure, be valid.

(2) No act or proceeding of any Board of Directors or a local board or committee of a corresponding new bank shall be invalid merely on the ground of the existence of any vacancy, or defect in the constitution of, such board or committee, as the case may be.

(3) All acts done by a person acting in good faith as a director or member of a local board or committee of a corresponding new bank shall be valid, notwithstanding that it may afterwards be discovered that his appointment was invalid by reason of any defect or disqualification or had terminated by virtue of any provision contained in any law for the time being in force:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to give validity to any act done by a director or member of a local board or committee of a corresponding new bank after his appointment has been shown to the corresponding new bank to be invalid or to have terminated.

19. Indemnity.—(1) Every Custodian of a corresponding new bank and every officer of the Central Government and of the Reserve Bank and every officer or other employee of a corresponding new bank, shall be indemnified by such bank against all losses and expenses incurred by him in or in relation to the discharge of his duties except such as have been caused by his own wilful act or default.

(2) A director or member of a local board or committee of a corresponding new bank shall not be responsible for any loss or expense caused to such bank by the insufficiency or deficiency of the value of, or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the corresponding new bank, or by the insolvency or wrongful act of any customer or debtor, or by anything done in or in relation to the execution of the duties of his office, unless such loss, expense, insufficiency or deficiency was due to any wilful act or default on the part of such director or member.

20. References to existing banks on and from the commencement of this Act.—Any reference to any existing bank in any law, other than this Act, or in any contract or other instrument shall be construed as a reference to the corresponding new bank in relation to it:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to an existing bank in relation to any business which it may, notwithstanding the provisions of section 4, carry on.

21. Dissolution.—No provision of law relating to winding up of corporations shall apply to a corresponding new bank and no corresponding new bank shall be placed in liquidation save by order of the Central Government and in such manner as it may direct.

22. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, make such rules as it may think fit to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner in which the business of the Advisory Board shall be transacted and the procedure to be followed at the meetings thereof;

(b) the fees and allowances which may be paid to members of the Advisory Board for attending any meetings of the Board or of any Committee that may be constituted by the Board;

(c) the formation of any Committee whether of the Advisory Board or of the corresponding new bank and the delegation of powers and functions to such Committee;

(d) any other matter which is required to be, or may be prescribed.

23. Rules and schemes to be laid before Parliament.—Every rule and every scheme made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or scheme or both Houses agree that the rule or scheme should not be made, the rule or scheme shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or scheme, as the case may be.

24. Power to make regulations.—(1) The Board of Directors of a corresponding new bank may, after consultation with the Reserve Bank and with the previous sanction of the Central Government, make regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and any rule or scheme made thereunder, to provide for all matters for which provision is expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the powers, functions and duties of local boards and restrictions, conditions or limitations, if any, subject to which they may be exercised or performed, the formation and constitution of local committees and committees of local board (including the number of members of any such committee), the powers, functions and duties of such committees, the holding of meetings of local committees and committees of local boards and the conduct of business thereat;

(b) the manner in which the business of the local boards shall be transacted and the procedure in connection therewith;

(c) the delegation of powers and functions of the board of directors of a corresponding new bank to the general manager, director, officer or other employee of that bank;

(d) the conditions or limitations subject to which the corresponding new bank may appoint officers, advisers and other employees and fix their remuneration and other terms and conditions of service;

(e) the duties and conduct of officers, advisers and other employees of the corresponding new bank;

(f) the establishment and maintenance of superannuation, pension, provident or other funds for the benefit of officers or employees of the corresponding new bank or of the dependants of such officers or employees and the granting of superannuation allowances, annuities and pensions payable out of such funds;

(g) the conduct and defence of legal proceedings by or against the corresponding new bank and the manner of signing pleadings;

(h) the provision of a seal for the corresponding new bank and the manner and effect of its use;

(i) the form and manner in which contracts binding on the corresponding new bank may be executed;

(j) the conditions and the requirements subject to which loans or advances may be made or bills may be discounted or purchased by the corresponding new bank;

(k) the persons or authorities who shall administer any pension, provident or other fund constituted for the benefit of officers or employees of the corresponding new bank or their dependants;

(l) the preparation and submission of statements of programmes of activities and financial statements of the corresponding new bank and the period for which, and the time within such statements and estimates are to be prepared and submitted; and

(m) generally for the efficient conduct of the affairs of the corresponding new bank.

(3) Until any regulation is made under sub-section (1), the articles of association of the existing bank and every regulation, rule, bye-law or order made by the existing bank shall, if in force at the commencement of this Act, be deemed to be the regulations made under sub-section (1) and shall have effect accordingly and any reference therein to any authority of the existing bank shall be deemed to be a reference to the corresponding authority of the corresponding new bank and until any such corresponding authority is constituted under this Act, shall be deemed to refer to the Custodian.

25. Amendment of certain enactments.—(1) In the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949),—

(a) in section 34A, in sub-section (3), for the words “and any subsidiary bank”, the words, figures and brackets “a corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969, and any subsidiary bank” shall be substituted;

(b) in section 36AD, in sub-section (3), for the words “and any subsidiary bank”, the words, figures and brackets “a corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969, and any subsidiary bank” shall be substituted;

(c) in section 51, for the words “or any other banking institution notified by the Central Government in this behalf”, the words, figures and brackets “or any corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969, or any other banking institution notified by the Central Government in this behalf" shall be substituted;

(d) in the Fifth Schedule, in Part I of paragraph 1, after clause (e), the following Explanations shall be inserted, namely:—

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this clause, "value" shall be deemed to be the market value of the land or buildings, but where such market value exceeds the ascertained value, determined in the manner specified in Explanation 2, shall be deemed to mean such ascertained value.

Explanation 2.—Ascertained value shall be equal to,—

(A) in the case of any building (including the land on which it is erected or which is appurtenant thereto) which is wholly occupied on the appointed day, twelve times the amount of the annual rent or the rent for which the building may reasonably be expected to be let out from year to year, after deducting from such rent,—

(i) one-sixth of the amount thereof on account of maintenance and repairs,

(ii) the amount of any annual premium paid to insure the building against any risk of damage or destruction,

(iii) where the building is subject to any annual charge, not being a capital charge, the amount of such charge,

(iv) where the building is subject to a ground rent, the amount of such ground rent,

(v) where the building is subject to a mortgage or other capital charge, the amount of interest on such mortgage or charge,

(vi) where the building has been acquired, constructed, repaired, renewed or re-constructed with borrowed capital, the amount of any interest payable on such capital, and

(vii) any sums paid on account of land revenue or other taxes in respect of such building;

(b) in the case of any building (including the land on which it is erected or which is appurtenant thereto) which is partially occupied on the appointed day, the value of the portion which occupied, ascertained in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (A) [the deductions under sub-clauses (i) to (vii) being made on a proportionate basis] and multiplied thereafter by the ratio which the entire plinth area of the building bears to the plinth area of the portion of the building which has been occupied or let out;

(c) in the case of any land which has no building erected thereon or which is not appurtenant to any building, the value, determined with reference to the prices at which sales or purchases of similar or comparable properties have been made during the period of three years immediately preceding the appointed day, by instruments registered under the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908), in the city, town or village where such land is situated.

(2) In the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), in section 2, in clause (b), for the words "and any subsidiary bank", the words, figures and brackets "a corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969, and any subsidiary bank" shall be substituted.

(3) In the Banking Companies (Legal Practitioners' Clients' Accounts) Act, 1949 (46 of 1949) in section 2, in clause (a) for the words "and any subsidiary bank", the words figures and brackets "a corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969, and any subsidiary bank" shall be substituted.

(4) In the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (47 of 1961),—

(a) in section 2,—

(i) after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(ee) "corresponding new bank" means a corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969;"

(ii) in clause (i), after the words "banking company", the words "or a corresponding new bank" shall be inserted;

(b) section 13 shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) The provisions of clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) and (h) of sub-section (1) shall apply to a corresponding new bank as they apply to a banking company."

(5) In the State Agricultural Credit Corporations Act, 1968 (60 of 1968)—

(a) in section 2, after clause (i), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(ii) "corresponding new bank" means a corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969;"

(b) after the words "subsidiary banks" or "subsidiary bank", as the case may be, occurring in clause (d) of sub-section (3) of section 5, in clause (b) of section 9 and in the proviso to section 18, the words "corresponding new banks" or "corresponding new bank", as the case may be, shall be inserted.

26. Removal of difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

Provided that no such power shall be exercised after the expiry of a period of two years from the commencement of this Act.

27. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Ordinance, 1969 (8 of 1969) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken, including any order made, notification issued or direction given, under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done, taken, made, issued or given, as the case may be, under the corresponding provision of this Act.

(3) No action taken or thing done under the said Ordinance shall, if it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be of any force or effect.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Ordinance, 1969, no right, privilege, obligation or liability shall be deemed to have been acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder.

THE SECOND SCHEDULE

(See section 6)

PRINCIPLES OF COMPENSATION

1. The compensation to be paid by the Central Government to each existing bank in respect of the acquisition of the undertaking thereof shall be an amount equal to the sum-total of the value of the assets of the existing bank as on the commencement of this Act, calculated in accordance with the provisions of Part I, less the sum-total of the liabilities computed and obligations of the existing bank calculated in accordance with the provisions of Part II.

PART I. —Assets

For the purposes of this Part, "assets" means the total of the following:

- (a) the amount of cash in hand and with the Reserve Bank and the State Bank of India (including foreign currency notes which shall be converted at the market rate of exchange);
- (b) the amount of balances with any bank, whether on deposit or current account, and money at call and short notice, balances held outside India being converted at the market rate of exchange;

Provided that any balances which are not realisable in full shall be deemed to be debts and valued accordingly;

- (c) the market value, as on the day immediately before the commencement of this Act, of any securities, shares, debentures, bonds and other investments, held by the bank concerned.

Explanation. For the purposes of this clause—

- (i) securities of the Central and State Governments [other than the securities specified in clauses (ii) and (iii) of this Explanation] maturing for redemption within five years from the commencement of this Act shall be valued at the face value or the market value, whichever is higher;

- (ii) securities of the Central Government, such as Post Office Certificates and Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates and any other securities or certificates issued or to be issued under the Small Savings Schemes of the Central Government, shall be valued at their face value or the encashable value as on the day immediately before the commencement of this Act, whichever is higher;

- (iii) where the market value of any Government security such as the zamindari abolition bond or other similar securities in respect of which the principal is payable in instalments, is not ascertainable or is, for any reason, not considered as reflecting the fair value thereof or as otherwise appropriate, the securities shall be valued at such an amount as is considered reasonable having regard to the instalments of principal and interest remaining to be paid, the period during which such instalments are payable, the yield of any security, issued by the Government to which the security pertains and having the same or approximately the same maturity, and other relevant factors;

- (iv) where the market value of any security, share, debenture, bond or other investment is not considered reasonable by reason of its having been affected by abnormal factors, the investment may be valued on the basis of its average market value over any reasonable period;

- (v) where the market value of any security, share, debenture, bond or other investment is not ascertainable, only such value, if any, shall be taken into account as is considered reasonable having regard to the financial position of the issuing concern, the dividend paid by it during the preceding five years and other relevant factors;

- (d) the amount of advances (including loans, cash credits, overdrafts, bills purchased and discounted) and other debts, whether secured or unsecured, to the extent to which they are reasonably considered recoverable, having regard to the value of the security, if any, the operation on the account, the reported worth and respectability of the borrower, the prospects of realisation and other relevant considerations;

- (e) the value of any land or buildings.

Explanation 1.—For the purpose of this clause, "value" shall be deemed to be the market value of the land or buildings, but where such market value exceeds the ascertained value, determined in the manner specified in Explanation 2, shall be deemed to mean such ascertained value.

Explanation 2.—Ascertained value shall be equal to,—

- (1) in the case of any building (including the land on which it is erected or which is appurtenant thereto) which is wholly occupied on the date of the commencement of this Act, twelve times the amount of the annual rent or the rent for which the building may reasonably be expected to be let out from year to year after deducting from such rent,—

- (i) one-sixth of the amount thereof on account of maintenance and repairs,
- (ii) the amount of any annual premium paid to insure the building against any risk of damage or destruction,

(iii) where the building is subject to any annual charge, not being a capital charge, the amount of such charge.

(iv) where the building is subject to a ground rent, the amount of such ground rent,

(v) where the building is subject to a mortgage or other capital charge, the amount of interest on such mortgage or charge,

(vi) where the building has been acquired constructed, repaired, renewed or re-constructed with borrowed capital, the amount of any interest payable on such capital, and

(vii) any sums paid on account of land revenue or other taxes in respect of such building;

(2) in the case of any building (including the land on which it is erected or which is appurtenant thereto) which is partially occupied on the date of the commencement of this Act, the value of the portion which is occupied, ascertained in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (1) [the deductions under sub-clauses (ii) to (vii) being made on a proportionate basis] and multiplied thereafter by the ratio which the entire plinth area of the building bears to the plinth area of the portion of the building which has been occupied or let out;

(3) in the case of any land which has no building erected thereon or which is not appurtenant to any building, the value, determined with reference to the prices at which sales or purchases of similar or comparable lands have been made during the period of three years immediately preceding the date of the commencement of this Act, by instruments registered under the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908) in the city, town or village where such land is situated;

(f) the total amount of the premia paid, in respect of all leasehold properties, reduced in the case of each such premium by an amount which bears to such premium the same proportion as the expired term of the lease, in respect of which such premium shall have been paid bears to the total term of the lease;

(g) the written down value as per books, or the realisable value, as may be considered reasonable, of all furniture, fixtures and fittings;

(h) the market or realisable value, as may be appropriate, of other assets appearing on the books of the bank, no value being allowed for capitalised expenses, such as share selling commission, organisational expenses and brokerage, losses incurred and similar other items.

Part II—Liabilities

For the purpose of this Part, "liabilities" means the total amount of all outside liabilities existing at the commencement of this Act, and all contingent liabilities which the corresponding new bank may reasonably be expected to be required to meet out of its own resources on or after the date of commencement of this Act.

CERTAIN DIVIDENDS NOT TO BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT

2. No separate compensation shall be payable for any dividend in respect of any period immediately preceding the commencement of this Act:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the payment of any dividend which was declared before such commencement.

THE COAL BEARING AREAS (ACQUISITION AND DEVELOPMENT) AMENDMENT ACT, 1969

ACT, No. 23 OF 1969
AN

further to amend the Coal Bearing Areas (Acquisition and Development) Act, 1957

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twentieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Coal Bearing Areas (Acquisition and Development) Amendment Act, 1969.

2. Amendment of section 28.—In the Coal Bearing Areas (Acquisition and Development) Act, 1957 (20 of 1957) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in section 28,—

(a) in sub-section (3), for the portion beginning with "in respect of such land;" and ending with "or any part thereof," the following shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been substituted, namely:—

"In respect of such land or of any rights in or over such land; and the Central Government may at any time make a declaration under section 9 of this Act in respect of the land or any part thereof or any rights in or over such land or part.”;

(b) after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, inserted, namely:—

“(3A) Where in respect of any land covered by any notification issued under section 4 of the said Act, no objection has been preferred under section 5A thereof within the period specified in that section, then it shall be deemed that a notification had been issued under section 7 of this Act in respect of such land or of any rights in or over such land and that no objection to the acquisition of the land or any rights in or over the land had been preferred under section 8 of this Act, and accordingly the Central Government may at any time make a declaration under section 9 of this Act in respect of the land or any part thereof or any rights in or over such land or part.”.

3 Validation of certain acquisitions.—Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any court, every acquisition of land or the rights in or over land made by the Central Government in pursuance of the notifications of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Steel, Mines and Fuel (Department of Mines and Fuel) Nos. S. O. 1759 and S. O. 25, dated the 7th August, 1958, and the 22nd December, 1959 respectively, made under section 9 of the principal Act, shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, as valid as if the provisions of section 28 thereof as amended by this Act were in force at all material times when such acquisition was made and shall not be called in question in any court of law on the ground only that before issuing such notifications no notification was issued under section 7 of the principal Act in relation to the land or rights in or over such land covered by the said notifications Nos. S. O. 1759 and S. O. 25.

Assented to on 13-8-1969.

THE UNLAWFUL ACTIVITIES (PREVENTION) AMENDMENT ACT, 1969

(ACT No. 24 OF 1969)

AN

to amend the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967.
Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twentieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Amendment Act, 1969.

2. Amendment of section 1.—In section 1 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (37 of 1967) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), for sub-section (2), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) It extends to the whole of India:

Provided that it shall come into force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.”

3. Insertion of new section 2A.—In the principal Act, in Chapter I, after section 2, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“2A. Construction of references to laws not in force in Jammu and Kashmir.—Any reference in this Act to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.”.
